Country Parson's good Advice to My Lord
Keeper.

L Earnedly Wise, and Prudent as the Rest,
With full as much Humility and Modestness Blest,
We do at once applaud thy single Sense,
And praise thy Muse for High-Church Eloquence.
Fitting thy Station is the Grave Advice,
Who else cou'd be so Peaceable and Wise?

Staphors Not S---ns stile of mightier force consists,
Tomers Begun by S---rs, and back'd by Pr---fts.

Binks B---ks and S---l the Pulpit blest,
Jacksons Ann St---w makes it Ecchoe to the Press.

Patrons thou canst not want, where Merit shines,
Blackworth M---h and P---y will support thy Lines,
Booky

Wright W---ght for a Modern Grudge shall back thy Fame,
Ward And W---d for antient Hatred do the same:

Bromby B---y his Disappointment may forgive,
Powis And P---is is is pleas'd in greater Hopes may live.
Mean time---

May you, so blest your Pains, rewarded be,
With Trophies of the Party's Honesty:

Rochester R---rs Truth, and Grace from N---by.
Normanby

Granville G---ls Sedateness, joy'd with C---y's Fame,
Conway

Nottingham With Depth of Eloquence from N---m:

Tymour Let S---rs Peace of Mind be ever seen,

Cesar And C--- reach the to revere the Queen:

Be faithful as thy Tribe was ever known,

Packington And learn to Preach, and Rail of P---n.

May all those Blessings in the Party bred,

Fall like the Dew of Herman on your Head;

Full of Ch---Loyalty be all your Prayers,

And all your Actions, full as Wise as Theirs.

Keeper.

Learnedly Wise, and Prudent as the Rest,
With full attention Humility and Attention I will
We do at once applaud thy single sense,
And praise thy Mute for High-Church Eloquence.
Fitting thy station in the Grave Advice,
Who else could be so Peaceable and Wise?
Not 2--we like of neither force nor arms,
Begin by 3--s, and finish by 1--s.
B--s and 2--s the Public place,
Ann 2--s makes it Echoes to the Field.
Parsons thou canst not wrap, where Men shine,
M--s and P--s will support thy Line.
W--s for a Modern Grudge shall back thy Fame,
And W--s for ancient Hatred do the same.
B--s his Disappointment may forgive,
And P--s is pleased in greater Hopes may live.
Mean time--
May you, so blest, be rewarded for
With Trophies of the Law's Honesty;
R--s Truth, and G--s from V--s.
C--s Seditions, joined with C--s Famine,
With D--s of Eloquence from V--s.
Let 2--s Peace of Mind be ever seen,
And C--s reach the to reverse the Queen;
Be faithful as thy Tale was ever known,
And learn to Peace, and Rail of P--s.
May all these blessings in the Law be seen,
Fall like the Dew of Heaven on your Foes.
Full of Ch--s Loyalty be all your Prayers,
And all your Action, full as Will as Thine.
